

Vietnam One Health Lab

2018 – now

ject related photo here

Objectives

1. To develop a One Health field site
2. To conduct One health research in Vietnam in the areas of i) food safety, ii) zoonosis, and iii) AMR
3. To generate evidences relevant to policy.

PIs: Nguyen Hung, Fred Unger, Food Safety theme

Partners: Hanoi University of Public Health National Institute of Veterinary Research, Thai Nguyen University, Vietnam One Health University Network

Funding: A4NH and project sources

Country: Vietnam

Highlight of achievements

- Establishment of a provincial-level One Health research site in Thai Nguyen Province
- Analysis of challenges of investigating antimicrobial resistance in Vietnam
- AMR stewardship study in Thai Nguyen
- One Health influenza surveillance in live bird markets and pig farms in 4 border provinces and Hanoi
- Probiotic trial in pig farm in Thai Nguyen to test the feasibility alternative to antibiotics in livestock production
- Hosting fellows of SEA One Health university network